Incidents of a Great Silk Trade

An occasion extraordinaire at Wanamaker's without a special silk offering would be very tame. The concentration of a great trade in two cities makes such rapid stock-turning that bargain chances come our way steadily. Our frequent offerings are natural-normal. Thus they should command confidence.

The following is one of the most remarkable chapters of the season. Read carefully:

At 871/6c .- An importer's samples of striped | and corded Japanese Dress Silks for the spring season of 1900. The period for orders is closed. We take the sample pieces and offer them to you a year in advance at one-fourth off next year's prices.
They'll be 50c. Different from any heretofore shown. Choice colorings.

sirable colors and patterns. Had them be-fore. Sold them out. Got more. Here they are. Well worth 55c. At 50c .- Entirely new Fancy Taffeta Silks. Nineteen latest color combinations in corded stripes. Difficult to describe their beauty or comprehend their cheapness, for they are really worth 85c.

At 40c.-Lyons Printed India Silks, very de-

At 45c.-Louisene and Taffeta checks of exquisite colorings, including the newest com-binations of blue and white. The entire lot is vital with freshness and beauty. Eightyfive cents was the previous price for the great majority of them.

At 50c.—Plain black frosted silks now so popular for dresses, waists, petticoats, linings, foundations—a universal fabric, good for everyuse. The low valuation is 85c.

Silk Remnants.—To be quickly in the remnant stock is a crown of glory to a fancy dress textile. Silk remnants are the aristocracy of our silk store. The small quantities explain the half prices. We have 1050 ends varying from five-eighths of a yard to fifteen yards. Sold only by the Some are dress patterns, some are waist patterns, some neither.

Only midsummer conditions would make such an offering possible.

Midsummer China Sale

A great New York audience awaits Wanamaker's news about China and Summer Chairs

Thus far this season we have goods in our china store. We know full well that it is only a waste of good Bric-a-Brac. To-day the story is remarkable. It deals with every class of and Settees distributed over money to advertise ordinarily good bargains in July. Therefore we print only the extraordinary.

As you read, remember that a new era broke upon the chinaware business in New York with the advent of our store. Prices went down on splendid goods — especially upon imported tableware. And since then they never advanced. This is the only needed commentary on to-day's Single pieces and sets, useful and ornamental, fanciful and practical-a broad chance for mental exercise.
